

Global Indigenous Forum

Steven J. Green School of International and Public Affairs

HIS 4264 Global Imperial-Indigenous Encounters: 1500 to present

Fall 2019 Course Offering: HIS 4264/Monday and Wednesday/3-3:50/ Modesto Maidique Campus/Room TBD/ Professor Jenna Gibbs

Course Description: This course examines how indigenous peoples and imperial settlers interacted with each other across the globe from the fifteenth century to the present, encompassing historical case studies from North and South America, Canada, South Africa, New Zealand, and Australia, and utilizing indigenous sources of oral histories, memoirs, and art, as well as critical readings of imperial sources. The course concludes by examining some of the economic, environmental, judicial and political issues facing contemporary indigenous peoples, including water and land rights, health, education, and reparations.

Professor Gibbs's contact information: Office: DM 392; phone: 305-348-3191; email: jgibbs@fiu.edu

This is a Global Learning Discipline -Specific course that counts towards your Global Learning graduation requirement and can also fulfill an AMH or AFH requirement or elective.